$7million

Imagine the possibilities if the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana could give away an additional $7 million in grants, every single year, forever.

Dear Friends,

Over the last year you've heard us refer to the endless possibilities that our community could achieve if everyone in Clark and Floyd counties left just 5% of their estate to the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana.

Leaving just 5% of your estate to your personalized, named fund at the Community Foundation, would leave 95% of your estate to your heirs.

And your 5% - added to 5% from everyone in Clark and Floyd counties - would mean an additional $7 million in charitable funding available for our region within the next 10 years!

With an additional $7 million, we could:

- Create safer schools and neighborhoods.
- Improve parks and greenways.
- Educate more students and provide more scholarships.
- Stop hunger in our community.
- Provide improved care for our most vulnerable citizens.
- Support arts and culture throughout Southern Indiana.

The possibilities are endless. But it takes all of us, working together in unison, to achieve so much.

The Community Foundation of Southern Indiana is here to be your philanthropic partner. We work every day to ensure that your generosity will last for generations and your charitable wishes are carried out the way you intended, forever. Think about what causes you care most about. What are your passions, your interests? Do you want to donate to your alma mater or your church? Would you like to support health and human services organizations or environmental causes or the arts?

Whatever your charitable interests are, we can help you support them, now and forever. Imagine the possibilities if everyone in our community left just 5% to support the causes they care most about. It's incredible to think about the impact we could have on future generations.

As you look through this report and see the stories and names of people who have already taken this step, think about the people you could help. Think about how you want your legacy to inspire others.

If you would like more information, we hope you'll visit www.cfsouthernindiana.com to learn more about the Foundation and how we're working to improve the lives of people throughout Southern Indiana with the help of generous people just like you.

Sincerely,

Linda S. Speed, J.D.
President and CEO

Chair, Board of Directors

The Community Foundation of Southern Indiana joined together with others in our community to forever preserve the Town Clock Church.

Inspiring Our Culture

Southern Indiana is a unique community with a rich heritage. The Ohio River shaped our borders, brought business and industry to our riverbanks and carved a culture steeped in tradition and pride.

Since 1991 the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana has made more than $507,000 in grants to support the arts, our history and culture. Preserving our history – and who we are as a community – is an important part of inspiring future generations.

The Town Clock Church, located in downtown New Albany, is a treasure that stood as a beacon of hope for fugitive slaves escaping the auction blocks along the Louisville riverfront and the chains of slavery. It was common knowledge that if they could get to the church, whose steeple was visible as they were marched to the Portland wharf, there were people who would help them through the Underground Railroad. The late Dr. Blaine Hudson, a University of Louisville professor and author, called the crossing point between Portland and the church in New Albany “the most important crossing point in the greater Louisville area.”

Over the years the church has faced a number of challenges in preserving its history, and our culture. Can you imagine losing such a wonderful structure and symbol that meant so much to so many? It’s an important part of who we are and what we represent as a community.

To forever preserve the Town Clock Church for future generations, the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana joined together with others in our community to support the efforts to bring this building back to life.

Imagine the history and culture we could preserve for future generations if every Southern Indiana resident left a gift of just 5% of their estate to the Community

Foundation of Southern Indiana. It would mean an additional $140,000 every single year to support projects like the Town Clock Church.

Tomorrow's Education, Today

Writer G.K. Chesterton once said that education is “the soul of a society as it passes from one generation to another.” Today, our community has the opportunity to shape the future of our region through education, and to imagine the soul of society we’re shaping for future generations. Through the generosity of individual donors and the many funds that make up the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana, last year 98 scholarships were awarded to youth across our region to support their continued learning, dictionaries were distributed to every third grader in Clark and Floyd counties, and the Foundation continued to help guide the Youth Philanthropy Council and educate them on the importance of giving back to their community.

Think of our community years from now. How will education influence our children's children? What future do you imagine for our region?

Jean Sekora Hudson

Dr. Rita Hudson Shourds knew exactly the future her mother imagined when she established the Jean Sekora Hudson Educational Scholarship for Women. It is a permanent endowment fund that provides scholarship assistance for females graduating from Springs Valley High School in French Lick, Indiana. This year, and every year, through the fund established by Dr. Shourds, her mother will influence the lives of young women as they work to complete the next chapter of their education.

Last year, over $375,000 in education support and scholarships from the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana was awarded in Southern Indiana. More than 2,500 dictionaries were distributed to third graders through the Dictionary Project. Can you imagine a community with nearly $3 million more in education support for our youth? It's possible if we all make the choice to leave 5% to help shape our community through a bequest to the Community Foundation.

Dr. Shourds states, “It was so easy to partner with the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana to honor my mother and her values by setting up a scholarship fund that will last for generations and impact the lives of so many. My mother would have been so happy to know her legacy will live on through this fund and that she is helping shape the future of our region.”

An initiative of the community foundations of Clark, Floyd, Harrison, Scott and Washington Counties

Education Matters Southern Indiana

Supporting education, providing scholarships, and creating opportunities for our youth is just a small part of how the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana supports education in our region and provides for our future. Increasing our educational attainment – the number of people with a completed form of post-secondary education – is another.

The Education Matters Southern Indiana (“EMSI”) initiative was organized by the community foundations that serve Clark, Floyd, Harrison, Scott and Washington counties in Indiana to strengthen our workforce and improve the economic advantages of our region by increasing the educational attainment of those adults with some form of post-secondary education but no degree or certification.

Research shows that in this five county region, only 25% of the workforce has an associate’s, bachelor’s, or professional degree, compared to 38% nationally. Yet one in four – over 40,000 people – of the region’s adult workers has earned some college credits. Those 40,000 people in our five counties represent an opportunity to increase the economic advantages of our communities, lure new businesses to our region, and enhance the quality of life for this and future generations.

Our goal is to increase our attainment numbers by 25% in the next 5 years (10,000 people). If you would like to help us influence change in our community and support the EMSI initiative please call us at (812) 948-4662. With your help we’ll change lives today and shape the foundation of our community’s future.

Community Foundation of Southern Indiana staff volunteered to help SOS sort medical supplies before being shipped around the world.

Providing For Our Most Vulnerable

In 2013 the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana granted over $222,000 to area health and human service organizations. These organizations represent a broad range of services and help thousands of people each year here in our community and around the world.

Supplies Over Seas (SOS) is a nonprofit organization based in Louisville that meets the critical health care needs in medically impoverished communities around the world. SOS works with local hospitals and health care professionals to recover and redistribute surplus medical supplies and equipment that otherwise would end up in landfills.

Since 1993 SOS has distributed over 750 tons of supplies and equipment to 91 countries. With a focus on their future, SOS established an endowment fund at the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana that will forever support their mission.

Any individual or nonprofit organization can establish their own, unique endowment fund to support the causes they care most about. Whether you want to support your alma mater, church, environmental causes, the arts, or your favorite health and human services organization, it is possible through a fund at the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana.

Providing more, and better, care for the most vulnerable will always be a focus of the Community Foundation. Imagine the change we could make here at home and around the world if we each supported the causes we care most about through a fund at the Community Foundation. The Transfer of Wealth study estimates that with your help, we can contribute another $1,750,000 per year to support our most vulnerable, and we could do it forever.

"SOS is very grateful for the support we receive from Southern Indiana and the entire metro community. Medical providers like Floyd Memorial Hospital, Southern Indiana Rehab, Clark Memorial Hospital, Scott Memorial Hospital, and Harrison County Hospital have donated thousands of pounds of expired medical supplies to support our mission and without the support of volunteers from across the area, it would be impossible for us to impact the lives of so many people throughout the world."

750 tons of supplies and equipment to

Preserving their memory and values

Honoring a Loved One

The Community Foundation of Southern Indiana is here to support you as you support our community. One way we do that is by preserving your or your loved one's passions and values for future generations by providing an easy and flexible way to support the causes you or they care most about.

Throughout our lifetime we develop beliefs, values, and connections to places and causes which shape the people we are. Honoring a loved one through a personalized, named fund at the Foundation is a wonderful way to take those experiences and passions and use them to impact future generations.

Dr. David Clifton and Ms. Wilma Klein each decided to honor their loved ones by establishing scholarship funds at the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana. Their generosity will inspire future generations of learners and provide the resources to enable them to complete their education and enrich this community. (see opposite page)

If you're interested in supporting the causes you care most about forever or establishing a fund in honor of a loved one, please give us a call at (812) 948-4662.

Dr. David and Kim Clifton

The Clifton Family

Dr. David Clifton is a lifetime educator who has worked in higher education for most of his career. He feels at home in the classroom, helping students throughout Southern Indiana accomplish their goals and realize their dreams. His focus on education and the belief that it is a powerful tool started at an early age. He grew up in a home with parents who believed learning, working hard, and helping others were important values.

When Dr. Clifton's father passed away, he and his wife, Kim, wanted a way to honor his parents' belief that access to education was important for everyone. They called the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana to help them accomplish this goal.

To read more about the Clifton family and the Klein family, and how they honored the lives of their loved ones, please visit our redesigned website at www.cfsouthernindiana.com or scan the code to the left.

Hank and Wilma Klein

The Klein Family

Wilma Klein and her husband, Hank, spent a lifetime educating youth through teaching and volunteer service in Kentucky. The importance of service, hard work, education, and strong values were instilled in them at early ages by their parents. Wilma was a longtime teacher and principal and Hank was a buyer for the Kroger Company with a passion for woodworking.

When Hank passed away in 2011 he left his entire woodshop to the students of Borden High School for their use and Wilma began concentrating on the joint charitable wishes of the couple: creating scholarships for their respective high schools and establishing a scholarship in memory of their parents. She was able to accomplish all of their local charitable goals by working with the Community Foundation.

It is simple to do and no matter what you want to support – religious causes, health and human services, education, green spaces, the arts – we can help you do it.

Youth Philanthropy Council

Morgan Ricke, Taylor Ricke

The Youth Philanthropy Council (YPC) is designed to involve youth in meaningful ways, to encourage them to give and serve in their communities and to make philanthropy a habit for the future. Students from high schools across our region join the Council to learn about their community and the value of volunteerism.

In 2013, the YPC learned about the value of community service, philanthropy, and granted a total of $5,000 to 10 not-for-profits that benefit youth in Clark and Floyd counties. Boys and Girls Clubs of Kentuckiana, Clark County Youth Shelter & Family Services, Hope Southern Indiana, Miles for Merry Miracles, New Albany-Floyd County Consolidated School Corporation, Open Door Youth Services, Rock Creek Community Academy, Voices 4 Youth, West Clark Community Schools, and Youth For Christ all received grants for involving youth in their organizational program planning or implementation.

The Mike and Tammie Ricke family knows a thing or two ... or five about the YPC and the impact it has on youth in Southern Indiana. Each of their five children have been four year members of the Council. Mike said, "YPC was a great program for our children. It gave them the opportunity to meet with peers and discuss regional issues while showing them how service and philanthropy can improve our community. The knowledge they gained from YPC will have a lasting positive impact."

Imagine what impact the Youth Philanthropy Council could have on our community if every Southern Indiana resident left a gift of just 5% of their estate to the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana. It could mean an additional $700,000 in grants to youth-focused programs in Clark and Floyd counties, every single year, forever.

Inspiring our Community

For years, our community has enjoyed spending time at the soccer fields located off Charlestown Pike in Jeffersonville. Families have spent hours at the fields as children practice and compete in local and regional soccer tournaments.

More recently, the City of Jeffersonville and the Clark County Soccer Association (CCSA) have worked to rebuild the fields in an effort to provide more opportunities for our region's residents, our youth, and to lure visitors from across the country to play on new state-of-the-art fields. During the fall 2013 grant cycle, the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana made a grant to CCSA to help support their efforts as they worked to secure funding for the Woehrle Youth Athletic Complex. Paul Duckworth, President of the Clark County Soccer Association, said, "With the help of the Community Foundation, we were able to produce presentation materials that showed what was possible at our site which, at the time, was undeveloped and hidden under brush and trees. This was a prime factor in securing funding for the project. It's incredible to think what we've been able to accomplish and how much more we can do by working together to better our community."

Inspiring our community takes vision and dedication. With the efforts and leadership of our community we can accomplish incredible things. In the fall of 2014, the Woehrle Youth Athletic Complex will be complete with a number of new soccer fields, two football fields and a variety of new options for families to get out and be active. Imagine how much more we could do by working together and leaving just 5% to the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana so we can keep inspiring our community forever.

The Woehrle Youth Athletic Complex will give new options for families to get out, be together, and be active.

Your Partner in Personal Philanthropy

For two decades, the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana has worked to create great communities in Southern Indiana by promoting and facilitating effective philanthropy. We have accomplished a great deal already, thanks to the generosity of donors who invest through the Community Foundation in their own personal philanthropic passions — whatever those might be — and by being good stewards of those philanthropic investments to build a permanent source of charitable funds for this community.

We work closely with individuals, businesses, non-profit agencies and families to create customized charitable funds that capture all of their philanthropic wishes. Our donors have established more than 240 separate charitable funds — either for the common good of Southern Indiana or for special interests of their own. The Community Foundation holds and invests these assets, and administers each fund in accordance with its donors' wishes, often in perpetuity. Our donors appreciate the flexibility, ease and cost-effectiveness of giving through the Community Foundation.

It is easy to donate to your favorite charitable causes through your own personalized fund at the Community Foundation. Just give us a call at (812) 948-4662 to get started.

Ways to Give

Each citizen in our community has unique interests and ideas for how to give back. Whatever your goals, whatever your means, whatever your passions, the Community Foundation will help you create a customized charitable fund to realize your dreams. Do you want to help students attend college? Would you like your children and grandchildren to one day help determine the charitable organizations that benefit from your fund? Are there specific non-profits — perhaps your alma mater or church — that should always benefit from a fund you create? Is there a particular area of interest, such as children's health, the environment or education, that you would like your fund to always address? Or do you simply want to give back to your community and help address its greatest needs at any given time?

All of these goals are possible through a customized charitable fund created at the Community Foundation. If you can dream it, we can help you achieve it.

Permanent Endowment Funds

Donors who would like to create a permanent legacy for their charitable interests may establish an endowment fund. With endowment funds, principal is never spent. Instead, a portion of earnings becomes available each year, based on the Foundation's spending policy, for grants to the donor's specified charitable cause. Endowment funds are a wonderful way to support your favorite organizations or interests, in your name, forever.

Pass Through Funds

Donors who want to streamline their current giving often establish a pass through fund at the Foundation. With an initial minimum gift of $1,000, your fund may make grants of all or any part of the fund balance, at any time, to your favorite charitable causes. Many donors make additional contributions to their fund over time to sustain current giving. You keep track of only one tax receipt, but may make as many charitable gifts as you like from your single contribution. Pass through funds are an excellent way to take advantage of a windfall or bonus, or the need for an income tax charitable deduction, and can help simplify your giving year-round.

Why Give Through the Community Foundation?

We make your giving easy, flexible and meaningful. We take all of the administrative details, investment issues, reporting and regulatory requirements out of your hands. You simply decide the charitable purpose of your fund, and we do the rest. A single gift can create a fund that will further your personal giving goals in perpetuity.

The chart below can help you decide if creating a fund at the Community Foundation is right for you.

Is a Fund at the Community Foundation Right For You?

WHAT IS YOUR GOAL?	TYPE OF FUND TO CONSIDER:
I currently support one or more charitable causes	You can create an endowment or pass through fund customized to fit your interests that will streamline and simplify all of your current giving – one gift, one tax receipt, and your one fund can benefit as many charities as you like.
I want to involve my children and my grandchildren in learning to give back	A family advised fund can provide the benefits of a private foundation without the hassles and expense, and can involve several generations of advisors to facilitate a family tradition of giving.
I know the particular charities that I always want to support	Your fund will send annual checks in your name to your selected charities.
I want to help students get an education	A scholarship fund can be customized to benefit students from a particular school, those studying a particular field, or whatever focus you choose.
I want to give back to my community	A Community Endowment fund in your name will support the community's needs now and in the future.
I want to leave a permanent legacy for my charitable interests	You can make a gift to the Community Foundation in your will or trust; we will work with you to create a customized endowment fund for the future that will benefit your favorite causes, in your name, forever.

Board Advised Funds

In 2013 the Community Foundation granted more than $117,125 to 58 organizations serving residents of Clark and Floyd counties from the Foundation's Community Endowment, our unrestricted permanent endowment fund. This discretionary fund is used each year by our board of directors, and our Community Grants Committee, to award grants that provide for the community's most pressing needs in Clark and Floyd counties.

If you want to give back to the community you call home, but don't have a specific cause in mind, you can contribute to the Foundation's Community Endowment, which benefits our entire service area. A minimum gift of $1,000 creates a Community Endowment Fund named for you. This is the most flexible type of fund for anyone who wants to give back to the community. We would like to recognize the following donors who created funds within the Community Endowment that help us to support the programs of so many deserving not-for-profit organizations in our area.

Community Grants – Addressing Today's Needs

Each year the Community Foundation offers competitive grants through our Community Endowment Fund to local 501(c)3 non-profit organizations. These non-profits must serve residents of Clark or Floyd counties but need not be physically located here. We look for existing or innovative programs that serve broad sections of the population. We primarily fund needs in the areas of arts and culture, community development, education, health, human services, recreation, environment and youth development. Each fall, grants of up to $5,000 are awarded to deserving organizations.

While we awarded more than $100,800 in 2013, the need always exceeds available resources.

With that in mind, when you think about your own charitable giving, we encourage you to consider supporting our Community Grants program. Your contribution of any amount can support the current year's grant funding or add to the Community Endowment Fund which provides an annual amount for our grants.

Professional Advisor Spotlight - R. Gregory Neely

Attorney R. Gregory Neely is a husband, father, volunteer and lifelong resident of Southern Indiana. Throughout his life, Greg has been an active member of our community and his experiences have given him a unique perspective on the role that charitable giving can play in meeting the needs of our region.

As an estate planning attorney for the Cody & Neely Law Office in New Albany, Indiana, Greg helps people leave a lasting legacy, much like the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana. Greg and the Community Foundation work together to help people who want to create a fund to meet their own charitable needs now, and those who want to leave a gift to their favorite nonprofit, school or church as a bequest that can positively impact that organization for generations. The Community Foundation is uniquely positioned to accept gifts of cash, appreciated stock, insurance proceeds, real estate, and many other types of assets to fund a donor's charitable intent. It's one of the reasons that Greg will often refer clients to the Community Foundation.

R. Gregory Neely

"Every person I work with has varying needs, personal values and family situations that can complicate the estate planning process," Greg states. "Working with the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana makes everything easier. Not only do I know that my clients will be well taken care of, but the Community Foundation can accept complex gifts and help me craft sophisticated estate plans that will help my clients achieve their goals. That's why I often refer my clients to the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana and why I've established funds at the Foundation for my family's giving."

Each day, Greg works with his clients to help them accomplish their financial and charitable goals, and in doing so he is helping transform our community for the long term. Imagine the possibilities if everyone in Southern Indiana left just 5% of their estate to the Community Foundation of Southern Indiana. Whatever their vision of the future is, whatever their values and beliefs are, the Community Foundation can design their charitable giving plan to provide for our community and future generations, forever.

Making Plans Now, For the Future

There are several ways to structure a legacy gift that allows you to create your future philanthropic plan now, while postponing the transfer of assets to the Community Foundation until after your lifetime.

Bequest or beneficiary designation. Under these popular options — naming the Community Foundation in your will or trust or as a beneficiary on a life insurance policy or retirement account — you retain the use of your assets or property now while creating perpetual support for your favorite causes after your lifetime. You can change these plans until your death.

Charitable lead trust. This option allows you to create a trust to make annual income payments to the Foundation for several years to build your legacy fund. The balance of the trust is then distributed to your selected beneficiaries.

Give Now, Receive Income For Life

You can create your future legacy fund now by making a gift to the Foundation that provides income for you and/or others for life, then creates an endowment fund to fulfill your charitable objectives after your or their lifetime.

Charitable gift annuity. You receive a guaranteed, fixed annual payment for your lifetime in return for a present-day gift to the Foundation to create your future legacy fund. You may receive payments immediately or defer them into the future; for example, when you plan to retire.

Charitable remainder trust. You create a trust with your present-day or testamentary gift to the Foundation. The trust provides income to you and/or someone you name for life. Then, at the income beneficiary's death, the remainder of the trust creates your permanent legacy fund.

The Community Foundation of Southern Indiana does not provide tax, legal or financial advice. With any of these giving plans, there may be gift, estate or income tax implications, depending upon your personal financial situation. You should first consult with your tax, legal or financial advisor before making this or any other charitable gift.

The Legacy Society

The Community Foundation of Southern Indiana is privileged to honor those generous people who give back to our community — in their own individual ways — by making a gift in their estate plans. Those listed here have let the Foundation know they have created a future gift in their plans. In many cases, they have worked with Foundation staff to establish a fund agreement to govern the use of their gift in the future when the fund receives assets from their estate. As a result, these Legacy Society members are assured their wishes will be carried out by the Foundation in perpetuity.
